D O P 55

My Dear Sir,

I have received your D. O. letter No.107 dated the 5th November 1924 regarding the arrangements for the conduct of work during His Highness' absence on tour in Dehra Dun. A weekly statement of cases disposed of which are of a routine nature will be submitted from the 22nd instant, together with information regarding public health, weather etc. as heretofore.

Regarding matters of a strictly confidential nature it is desirable that a code should be used. I am asking the Chief Secretary to send you the code word together with instructions for its use.

Yours sincerely,

Dewan.

Amin-ul-mulk
